Dear Parents,

The Westbury Music Department wants your child to perform at this year’s New York State Music Association (NYSSMA) solo and ensemble festival! At this fun event, students play for professional musicians and get advice on how to play better.

You must sign-up before January 10, 2018

Your child’s music teacher will help them get ready, after you sign them up. You will need to drive your child to the festival, for their performance.

You need to pay a fee to be in this festival and that fee is not refundable. You will also have to buy some music. The music costs less than $20.00, most of the time. Your child will have to practice, a lot, to get ready, but they will have fun. If your child does not want to practice, or if you are not free the weekend of the festival, you should not sign-up.

This year’s piano festival is at Nassau Community College, 1 Education Drive, Garden City New York. The days of the festival are Friday March 2nd and Saturday March 3rd, 2018. You can ask for a time that is best for you, but we are not always given the times we want. Try to be available for either day.

If you have any questions, contact your child’s music teacher or call Mr. Johnson, the music department chairperson, at 516-874-1138. We can help you fill out the form; understand how much you have to pay and what you have to buy.

This for is for piano players only. The music teacher has other forms for students who sing or play other instruments.

Sincerely,

Westbury Music Program
